To:

There's one thing you need to know about Arizona's Senate race right now:
This seat is one of just two toss-ups in 2020.

Friend,

Arizona is poised to be the primary battleground for control of the Senate AGAIN.

We need to immediately reignite the grassroots movement we built last year to ensure that Arizona's junior Senate seat goes to someone who shares our values.

Kyrsten has launched a Battleground Arizona Fund to ensure we have the resources to keep building our movement heading into 2020. She's set a goal to raise \$20K by midnight Friday.
